Sait Lake City, was not a resident of this city. About three weeks since a man by this name came to this city. Frank D. Highes of New York, who is here in the interest of a tour of the tabernacic choir to constern either with a view of eventually taking the singers to Paris, has just completed securing bullion subscriptions with which to cast a golden status of a typical American girl for exhibition at the Paris expesition mest year. Mr. Highes says the status will cost $800,000.

It will be life-size, but it will not be of gold yellow metal. Instead, the outside will be fire-size, but it will not be of pold yellow metal. Instead, the outside will be of the thickness of a finger, with a hollow interior. A solid statue of the kind proposed would coat somewhere in the mullions. Mr. Highes is in high feather over the success of his enterprise.
